

Where Hope Rises:

Wisdom-Sophia in the Writings of Thomas Merton

Christopher Pramuk, PhD

*Associate Professor of Theology
Xavier University, Cincinnati, OH*

In a world riven by polarization, war, and planetary crisis, the Wisdom-Sophia tradition interjects a quiet word of unity and hope, of revelatory wonder and beauty, beckoning us to the work of healing, cross-cultural encounter and reconciliation. In a world replete with unspeakable violence against women and children, remembering and celebrating the feminine face of God, the divine presence alive in the world, becomes ever more urgent for Christianity and the world's great religious traditions. In this day of reflection Dr. Pramuk explores with us the remembrance of Wisdom-Sophia in the life and writings of Thomas Merton and others. Based on Dr. Pramuk's book: Sophia: The Hidden Christ of Merton.

Sunday, April 13, 2014 at 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Cost will be $25 for the Day (Lunch is Included)

*Commonwealth Chateau
Chestnut Hill College
9230 Germantown Avenue
Philadelphia, PA 19118*

The Institute for Religion and Science
Hosted by Chestnut Hill College